A Washington correspondent says there is a project maturing to change the route of the Salt Lake
Mail to a point 150 miles far ther south, so as to run through from the center of Kansas into the settle-ments south of Salt Lake City.

The result will be the abandonment of Fort Lar-amie, and the diversion southward of the whole amic, and the diversion southward of the whole overland emigration to California.

The Postmaster General is favorably inclined to the proposed change.

Nathan Sargeant, of Philadelphia, has issued a circular calling a meeting of the friends of Senator Crittenden, for the purpose of devising measures to bring him forward as a candidate for the Presidency.

Mr. Gwin notified the Senate that he would all it up at an early day.

Mr. Cameron gave notice of a motion for a sension to the widow of Gen. Persifea F. Smith, nd Mr. Seward gave a similar notice in behalf of Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines Several uninteresting petitions were presented, and the Senate djourned until Thursday. House—The House took up the resolution requesting the President to take such steps as may be in his judgment best calculated to effect the speedy abrogation of the Clayton Bulsession reported from the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Ritchie of Pa., moved to lay the resolution on the table: negatived, 90 against 93.

The resolution was then referred to the committee of the whole on the state of the Union.

Mr. Bellinghurst of Wis. moved to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Curtis' bill for the Central Pacific Railroad, was referred to the select committee on the subject. He said that that commission, composed of gentlemen from various sections of the country, had come to no conclusion being divided in sentiment, and some of the commissioners would in sentiment, and some of the commissioners would harm the subject.

Mr. Curtis of lowa replied that no matter before the House was of more importance. This required a greater share of deliberation and argument. Although the Commissioners were divided, there was almost general concurrence that something ought to be done for the railroad, but when the subject of the route was brought up they found themselves embarrassed. He did not despair of final success in the select committee, but thought if they compromised on any route it will be on the tentre. sed on any route it will be on the Central
